AND CULTURAL AFFAIRS and the NATIONAL ENDOWMENT FOR THE ARTS

We cannot carry out our mission without YOU!

Dear Art Lovers and Artists:

It's time for you to show your support for the Gaylord Area Council for the Arts (GACA). Through the efforts of artists, volunteers and community leaders, we continue to get stronger and expand our arts programming with each passing year.

We are so proud that this year Gaylord was chosen as one of only two communities to host the unique outdoor fine art exhibit called "Inside|Out". Made possible through the prestigious Detroit Institute of Arts (DIA), it will be on display in the greater Gaylord area through mid-October 2018.

In addition to this exhibit, we hope you and your family have taken part in many of our other activities during this last year:

- ◆ Enjoyed some of our seven fine art exhibits and 42 creativity workshops.
- ◆ Witnessed your child's artistic abilities expand through our children's arts workshops and activities.
- ◆ Tapped into your creative self through "The 100-Day Project", which encourages artists & crafters to create every day for 100 consecutive days.
- ◆ Learned a new artistic skill through "Funday Mondays" or made new friends at the "Creative Crowd".
- ◆ Danced all night at our "Sweetheart Swing" Big Band Dance, held last February.
- ◆ Listened to live music by 30+ musicians, playing in various downtown locations, during our second "Random Acts of Music".
- ◆ Joined other local musicians at our weekly "Music Jam" sessions held last winter.

This community's energy and enthusiasm for the arts continues unabated. Take the plunge by joining the GACA family—create, volunteer, contribute & encourage. While you're at it, tell others about our great little arts organization!

Thank you-

Janet Allen, GACA President
